CAMP TANDA

40005 Lakeview Drive, Big Bear Lake, California

Quiet Hours 10 p.m. to 7 a.m.

PLEASE ABIDE BY CAMP TANDA RULES

This camp is located about three miles east of the Big Bear Dam on the south side of the lake. From I-10, take the #330/Mountain Resorts exit. At Running Springs follow the signs (Hwy #18) for 17 miles to the Big Bear Lake Dam. Turn right, crossing the dam, staying on #18 (Big Bear Blvd.) for 3.4 miles. Watch for the Log Cabin Restaurant on the left, at the corner of Big Bear Boulevard and Edgemoor. Turn left, two streets past Edgemoor on Forest. Angle right on Arroyo. Make a hard left at Lakeview into Camp Tanda. If you've traveled up Hwy #38, continue on Big Bear Boulevard to Forest, turn right, Angle right on Arroyo and make a hard left at Lakeview into Camp Tanda. Please plan your arrival at Camp Tanda after 1pm Friday July 10, 2009. Camp rules.

FACILITIES: Restrooms and showers on site. Limited RV parking. Unlimited camping under pine trees--children's playground--a mile from Downtown Big Bear--dozens of restaurants, shops and gas available--there are plenty of motels and other campgrounds nearby if you prefer. Speed limit in camp is 5 M.P.H. Pets must be on leashes. Because of the tradition of its founders, alcohol, drugs and profanity are not permitted by Camp Tanda. Please do not throw empties in the camp trash. Due to fire restrictions campfires, open flames or BBQ's are not permitted at the campground. Cigarettes must be extinguished in ashtrays only.

TRAILS and RATINGS: We will have three different types of trails running simultaneously on Saturday. Scenic Cruisers (pavement only), Average Adventurers (medium to little difficulty), and Thrill Seekers (most difficult). Those opting for the most difficult trail must have a skid plate and a working emergency brake. The Average Adventurers (who are of course anything but average) will be divided among several different trails.
